

Planning for the future includes creating instructions on how you would like designation form is used to direct your remaining assets to loved ones as well as allows you to create a charitable legacy for generations to come.

To create your legacy gift, simply designate the association as a partial or

These forms are often online or can be downloaded from the following websites:

r socio

